Nixon's Committee Work.

When George Nixon was elected Senator he made a speech at the banquet and told the members of the Legislature and the people assembled that while he did not claim to be an orator or a statesman that he was a business man and proposed to "do some work in Committee which would be alright for the State of Nevada."

Well the first work he has done in Committee was to assist in the assassination of the Philippines Bill. The killing of that bill in committee was done at the behest of the trusts and corporations.

A few more specimens of this sort of Committee work ought to rouse the people of Nevada to one long shout for more Republican Senators to knife the State in the interests of the trusts the people that George Nixon was denouncing so heartily in 1890.

A German doctor is said to have invented a preparation which, when swallowed, floods the stomach with light. If the rays penetrate the flesh and illumine the outer darkness the early morning keyhole problem will have been solved. That is, provided the morning wayfarer takes a little of the German stuff in his final drink.

After celebrating their golden wedding anniversary, an aged Lane county, California couple have decided to separate. Well they ought to know their own minds by this time.

Attorney General Hadley of Missouri has proven his contention that all the "independent" oil concerns in Missouri are owned by the Standard Oil company. It begins to look as if the only really independent man is the one who has nothing and expects nothing.

Says the space writer: John D. Rockefeller is the victim of a serious stomach trouble and the result of indigestion. This versatile press correspondent is evidently determined to go clear down the line of an ill's flesh is heir to in his effort to keep the oil magnate's name before the public.

Andrew Pierce's definition of the word "police" as "an armed force for the suppression of unprofitable crime" ought to go into the dictionary.

J. Ross Clark, brother of Senator W. A. Clark, was entertained in Tonopah by the Mizpah club Wednesday and stated that the conversation of the club was a "very interesting" one. He was being rushed but said nothing of the conversation into Tonopah.

David Alshen, shot by Matomick at Manhattan, Nye county, day of his wounds and a charge of murder has been filed against his slayer.

Crown Point yesterday levied an assessment of ten cents per share.
